From:	Chip Lewis
Subject:	Nose Blanking Panel Option	Date:	October 10 th , 2007

Attention all Elan DP02 teams

Available to order is an optional nose blanking panel, Part No. DP02-40-047. The nose blanking panel is expected to help raise coolant temperatures on cold days. The nose blanking plate has an optional scribe line that teams can use to trim the plate for additional cooling. An assembly that includes the panel and mounting hardware can also be ordered, ADP02-40047.

Note: This nose blanking panel is a homologated component and is the only version that can be used.
